
Forest City appears to be at about year 7 or 8. Infestations are typically confirmed/discovered at about year 4 or 5 after they kill the first few trees. After years of study, I can recognize early levels of infestation but they are very inconspicuous and easily confused with other tree diseases/problems until the infestation is severe in a few individual trees.

Source: www.georgiantree.ca